OLIVINI

Where others spend their holidays, the Olivini Winery is at home. The winery is located near Desenzano and cultivates some of the most beautiful hillsides at the southern tip of Lake Garda. The Olivini family has owned vineyards for many generations, but used to sell their wines openly to other wineries. About 10 years ago, together with the oenologist Anntonio Crescini, they began to develop the wines themselves and market them under their own name. The winery is run by the siblings Giovanni, Giorgio and Giordana Olivini, who are passionately promoting the autochthonous grape variety Turbiano, also known as Trebbiano Lugana.
