Notes Pronounced aromas of strawberry, red cherry, rose petals and a little honey. The slight residual sweetness and the long finish make the wine very sweet and harmonious.

Accompanying Cold starters, freshwater fish or simply as an aperitif.

Vinification The grapes are pressed immediately after destemming to prevent too much tannin and color from being released from the skins. This gives Rosamunde its typical salmon pink color. The wine is then fermented and matured with a slight residual sweetness.

BICKGUT

Florian and Michael Wanner are the third generation to run the Bickgut estate near Würenlos. Their vineyard: a sun-drenched south-facing slope with mineral-rich soils. A small patch, grown for great wines. Their ambition is correspondingly great - a tradition at Wannern. Their aim is to produce top wines from Aargau. They know that this requires investment, a lot of time and immense patience. And one thing above all: respect for the course of nature. This passion unites them anew every day with their select team.
