JOSE GIL

José Gil is a young producer from Rioja who is a rising star in the Spanish wine world. After just two vintages, the wine world became aware of the young José Gil and his Uruguayan wife Victoria. He was named "Young winemaker of the year 2021" by Tim Atkin (MW) in his Rioja Report and one of the region's best young talents by Luis Gutiérrez. A descendant of a winemaking family from San Vicente de la Sonsierra, José and his wife Vicky cultivate 8 hectares of vines mainly in San Vicente, but also in the surrounding villages of Labastida and Briones. The vines are between 5 and 130 years old. The care of the vines is carried out entirely by this young couple. They mature their wines in a natural cave on a hill in the village of San Vicente. José and Vicky's wines reflect the couple's dedication, their vision and the characteristics of their vines. The wines are very fresh, fine and extremely elegant.
